

TRAINEE/INTERN APPLICATION COVER SHEET

1. Read the following information sheet and complete the application. Present it to AMIDEAST, along with 1) a copy of your passport; and 2) a copy of your internship/trainee offer letter.
2. Your information will be vetted through the OFAC data base, and your application evaluated to determine if you are eligible for an intern/trainee visa.
3. Once you have been cleared, you will be invoiced for the AMIDEAST sponsorship fee. For programs under six months, the fee is $1,000. For programs six months or longer, the fee is $1,200. The fee covers the J sponsorship and monitoring of your intern/trainee program and can be paid by you or by the prospective host institution. It does NOT include the following:
 - Transportation costs to your internship/training institution
 - U.S. Visa fee ($160)
 - SEVIS fee ($180)
 - Housing or living expenses
 - Health insurance

There will be an additional fee to cover the cost of a site visit if the host company has fewer than 25 employees or less than $3 million in annual revenue.

4. AMIDEAST will contact your prospective host institution to ensure that they meet the U.S. government requirements for hosting interns/trainees. Should the provider not meet the requirements, you will be refunded your fee minus 10% of the total.
5. If the hosting institution is approved, you will be sent a Training/Internship Placement Plan (DS-7002), which will outline the responsibilities of the host institution, AMIDEAST and you. This must be signed by you and a copy must be returned to AMIDEAST. This can be done electronically by e-mail or fax. You will then be issued a DS -2019 to obtain a visa. If for any reason you are denied a visa, you will be refunded your fee minus 15% of the total.
6. Over the course of your internship, an AMIDEAST advisor will check in with you to ensure that you are getting the training that you were promised, as well as to monitor your safety and well-being. We will also assist you with any issues that you may have directly related to your training in the U.S.
